

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, March 04, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi
Proposal restricts abortion funding

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi
Abortion bill facing deadline in Mississippi Legislature
Hargrove: County needs own morgue
OTHER VOICES:
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi
Supreme Court ruling allows for costly, duplicate services

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.
Lawmakers act like judge, jury, says Enron's Skilling
James W. Brosnan: Welfare reform is no passion for Bush
Editorial 3/3: Welfare reform still merits investment

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi
Lawmakers should add teeth to law
Senate's vote on Medicaid bailout bill leaves program in jeopardy
Governor's veto benefits lawyers
Flood waters still threaten state

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi
Cuts to workforce training could cause problems?
Musgrove deserves the heat he's getting over Hyundai project

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi
USM gets coast expansion OK

Stateline.org
Mississippi Grant Aids Women's Cause

The Clarksdale Press Register
Workforce training on the chopping block again

The Bolivar Commercial
Attorney general, governor honor Jimmy Williams
LEGISLATURE: Passing on the cigarette tax

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
Candidates qualify to run for House, Senate
One board for all of higher education

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

'No Tax Money for Abortions' Bill must pass from committee this week or die 3/4
Weekly Standard: Pickering a nomination worth fighting for 3/4
Attorney General's Office gives $32K to start Boys and Girls Club 3/3
SOS muzzles Humane Society 3/2
AG, Gov honor Delta humanitarian 3/3
OBIT: Former Coast legislator Stanford Morse dies 3/3
Rep John Mayo wants 'smoke free in 2003' 3/3
Gov Ronnie Musgrove Column: Despite loss of Hyundai, state is on world's radar screen 3/3
Senator Neely Carlton Column: Delta must maintain strong delegation in Legislature 3/3
Rep George Flagg Column: Having troubled youth undergo test step in right direction 3/3
Legislation to jail public officials who embezzle still alive 3/3
Plan after plan and still no Medicaid fix 3/3
HUB Session Roundup: Naming for Gandy; making schnapps; mending Medicaid 3/3
Magee, Hoda to meet in Petal School Board runoff on March 16 3/3
Jena Chocktaws say politicians speak with forked tongues 3/2
MERIDIAN ED: Musgrove deserves heat he's getting on Hyundai 3/3
Wyatt Emmerich: Don't cut workforce training 3/3
David Hampton: When budget crisis ends, will we recall how it happened? 3/3
Sid Salter: Race for jobs can't be lost in Mississippi 3/3

The New York Times

National Briefing: South

The Washington Post

Supreme Court Rejects Redistricting Appeal

Yahoo.com

Medicaid Program in Limbo March 1
Medicaid program in limbo after Senate rejects bailout bill March 1
Governors Want Financial Flexibility Feb. 26
Governors Turn to Congress in Medicaid 'Crisis' Feb 26